Entered as Second-Class Matter Friday, February 19th, 1901 at the Postoffice at Barbourville, Knox County, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.
MOTTO—LIVE FOR OUR FRIENDS—DO THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF GOOD WE CAN TO THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE.

Terms: $1. Per Year In Advance.

BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1904.

First Year. Vol. I. No. 39.

UNPRECEDENTED VICTORY

Achieved by Republicans Throughout the United States
Last Tuesday.

Roosevelt and Fairbanks Swept Every Doubtful State and Received the Largest Popular Vote Ever Given Any Ticket in the United States.

Will Receive 341 of the 476 Electoral Votes, While Parker Gets Only 135 Votes

President Roosevelt Delighted With the Result--Says He Will no More
Be A Candidate For Presidency.

The great battle of the ballots was fought at the polls last Tuesday, and the result soon became known. The victory for the Republican ticket was so decisive that it only required a short time to receive sufficient returns to confirm what we had believed all along would happen.

The Democratic spell-spinners had been claiming every doubtful State, but the returns showed that the Republicans carried every one.

The State of New York, where the Democrats were claiming they would defeat Roosevelt, gave a Republican plurality of 280,000; Illinois came in with 200,000 plurality for the Republican ticket, and Ohio with 150,000. New Jersey went Republican, and even Nebraska, Bryan's home State, went Republican, as did also the State of West Virginia; Kansas rolls up 100,000 for Roosevelt.

Kentucky is about all that was left to comfort the Democrats, and in many places the conduct of the thugs and hoodlums was such that it will drive decent men from the party.

In Louisville, the officers of election in some of the strong Republican precincts were overpowered by thugs, who broke into the voting room after the polls had closed, and by force and intimidation, took control of everything in sight and carried the ballots away with them, and succeeded in defeating Maj. Owens for Congress by about 1,500 votes.

The people of the United States showed clearly that they have implicit confidence in the ability of President Roosevelt to manage her affairs, and administered to Judge Parker the most crushing defeat that has been given to the standard-bearer of the Democratic party since the days of Horace Greely.

When President Roosevelt received the news of his glorious victory he gave out the following statement:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and have tried to do.

"I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes upon me, and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it."

"On the 4th of March next I shall have served 3½ years, and this constitutes my first term.

"The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

THE VOTE IN KENTUCKY.

Barbourville—The eleven precincts in Knox county gave Roosevelt 1,643 votes, Parker 533 votes. Six precincts yet to hear from will increase the Republican majority of Knox.

Mt. Vernon—Rockcastle's vote in the race for Judge of the Court of Appeals: Cantrill, 844; Herndon, 1,684.

Middlesboro—Bell county, four precincts: Roosevelt, 443 votes; Parker, 186.

East Bernstand—Roosevelt carried Laurel county by 1,100 majority. Edwards runs ahead of the ticket. This county only gave McKinley 1,003 majority in 1900.

Clay county, five precincts, gave Parker 322 votes, Roosevelt, 805. Missing precincts will give 500 Republican majority.

Somerset—Twenty-one precincts out of thirty-five give Roosevelt 1,025 majority. The majority in the county complete will be 1,500 or 1,900. McKinley's majority was 1,900.

Danville—Boyle county: Roosevelt, 1,368; Parker, 1,626.

Maysville—Roosevelt, 2,018; Parker, 2,743.

Cynthiana—Roosevelt, 1,528; Parker, 2,080.

Vanceburg—Roosevelt, 8,527; Parker, 1,474.

Williamstown—Incomplete returns show Parker has carried Grant county by 500 majority. Rhinocky for Congress about the same.

Paris—Complete returns from Bourbon county give Parker 2,587; Roosevelt, 2,146. For Congress: Trimble, 2,581; Calvert, 2,147. For Judge of the Court of Appeals: Cantrill 2,582; Herndon, 2,148.

Newport—Berry is probably elected Circuit Judge. He is running 300 ahead of Parker.

Covington—Based on fifteen precincts Roosevelt has a good chance to carry both Kenton and Campbell counties.

Versailles—Woodford county: Roosevelt, 1,273; Parker, 1,620; Watson, 2.

Mt Sterling—Montgomery county: Roosevelt, 1,625; Parker, 1,476; Swallow, 34.

We take great pleasure in presenting to each of our readers this week a nice painting of the President and Vice President-elect, Messrs. Theodore Roosevelt and Charles W. Fairbanks.

The two men have the distinguished honor of polling the largest popular vote of any men in the United States.

These paintings will be a nice addition to your collection of pictures and portraits.

The Primary.

To-morrow will be the day when the nominees will be made for county offices. The town is now full of candidates and all seem to be hopeful and confident of being elected.

We are making no suggestions and making no guesses as to what the final result will be.

We have attempted all along to let the people choose for themselves who they want to serve as their officials.

We do not want to appear dictatorial to the people. We appreciate the favors that the majority of the candidates have shown to the ADVOCATE, and we have endeavored to treat all of them with the respect that is due them.

We have our personal choice among the candidates just as other men, but we have endeavored to refrain from saying anything harsh or personal concerning any candidate.

We have permitted our correspondents to express themselves concerning their choice of candidates regardless of what our individual choice might be, and they have "boosted" almost every candidate in the field.

Now that this is the last issue before the election, we want to say whatever may be the result we will accept it and support the nominees of the party, believing that the good people of Knox county are too wise to make a mistake in the selection of their nominees.

Let's all turn out to the polls to-morrow and vote our sentiments, and resolve that whether we win or lose we will still be loyal to the party and to the union.

THE LATEST

Political Move on the Eve of the County Primary.

On last Tuesday night between 12 and 1 o'clock there was entered into at Barbourville one of the most dastardly, cowardly and corrupt political bargains ever made in the history of Kentucky.

T. J. Wyatt and J. S. Miller, two candidates for County Judge, were the bargainers. These two candidates perceiving that there was a majority of votes against them, and that they were steering their political fortunes into a whirlpool, began to connive and plot against their opponent, Flem D. Sampson. It was determined in their conference that night that Mr. Sampson had them both badly beaten, and that they would therefore pool their interests in the hope of defeating him.

It was agreed that as Miller had plenty of money he should undertake to make the race. It is an open secret that there was a large consideration for Wyatt's retirement.

Miller agreed to do certain things and to furnish a certain sum of money and Wyatt was to get off the track and throw his friends to Miller. Can Wyatt deliver the goods? Will the voters of Knox county suffer themselves to be sold and delivered like cattle?

Wyatt issued a circular to his friends, directing them whom to vote for, and thus tried to carry out his part of the bargain. This is all very wrong, and the people have discovered it, and hundreds are now preparing to cast their vote for Flem D. Sampson.

Judge Miller's record as a County Judge is full of extravagances and abuses. He has clearly demonstrated that he is incompetent to attend to the affairs of the county. The county is deep in debt, and four more years of Miller will be a disaster to the county from which it could not soon recover. If elected, instead of being a county judge, he will be a drummer, as in the past, and draw two salaries instead of one.

CITIZEN.

INSTRUCTIONS

To Officers of Primary Election.

The officers of this election are requested to remember, above all things, that this is a Republican election among Republican candidates, wherein Republicans alone should vote.

Some of the contests to be determined, on November 12, 1904, may be so close that a few Democratic votes improperly admitted, might be a balance of power and determine who the nominees shall be. These nominations should be made by Republicans and not by Democrats. It is to be sincerely hoped that no Republican who has been chosen to act as an officer in this election will permit his zeal for the candidate of his choice to tempt him to countenance any sort of wrong, whether the wrong be in fraudulent tabulation of the vote, or the admission of votes not strictly and purely Republican.

Avoid doing anything which has the semblance of wrong, nor suffer any wrong to be committed, and no one in another part of the county will attempt a wrong to offset a fancied wrong.

Bear in mind that only known Republicans should be allowed to vote. If any of the officers doubt the politics, age or residence of a man offering to vote, he is authorized under the law to swear such a person as to whether he has at the last county election, as in the last State and National election, supported the Republican nominees.

If a man's Republicanism is known only to himself alone he is not much of a Republican.

NO MAN SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO VOTE IN THIS PRIMARY ELECTION UNLESS IT IS A WELL-KNOWN FACT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD IN WHICH HE LIVES THAT HE IS A REPUBLICAN.

When the polls in one precinct are improperly opened to one non-Republican the news will be flashed all over the county, and immediately the election will cease to be a Republican election, and will be controlled by Democrats. KEEP THEM OUT.

Any well-known Republican residing in the county, and who is now 21 years of age, or who will be 21 years of age by the November election, 1905, is entitled to vote, as the time to elapse between now and then, will meet all the requirements of the Law on the subject.

The last injunction is to let only well-known Republicans vote, and count every vote just as it was cast, and the results will be entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Respectfully,

W. W. BYRLEY.

Chairman Knox County Republican Committee.

RED MEN

Held Memorial Services at Grave of Brother J. A Hoarinc Last Sunday Afternoon.

Tehopatlous Tribe, No. 111, held a memorial service at the local cemetery last Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

The line of march was formed at the Lodge room at 1:30 o'clock and marched to the cemetery, where they decorated the grave of one of the deceased members of Pineville Lodge, who was buried here.

The services were very impressive and brought tears to the eyes of many of the spectators, who had gathered to witness it. Tehopatlous tribe is rapidly growing in numbers, having on last week initiated four new members, and at the last meeting conferred the degrees upon members.

The best citizenship of the town and surrounding country is now represented in this tribe, and new members are constantly joining.

Make your application now, if you want to take advantage of the cut-rate price, as the price will soon be $15.00 for the three degrees.

Mrs. Clelland Dead.

Mrs. Carlisle Clelland, whose illness we made mention of in the local page this week, died last night at 8:30 o'clock. The remains will be sent back to her former home in Danville to-day.

Sample Corn.

We have received some very nice samples of corn on the prize proposition offered elsewhere in this paper, and a number of others have expressed their intentions in bringing in samples.

Now that the primary is over and the National election has been so satisfactory to the most of us, let's now settle down to business and turn our attention to something else.

Remember this contest closes the first of December, therefore you must hurry if you want to contest for these prizes.

Surely you want a chance at the $2.50 gold piece or the $2.00 in silver. You can still enter, and remember it makes no difference about the color of your corn, white, yellow, red, speckled or anything, just so it is raised in Knox county.

Bring it to this office and have your name recorded as one of the contestants.

and if successful will stand by the people of his district.

JUDGE T. J. WYATT has quit the race for county Judge in the interest of Judge Miller.

He is out in a signed announcement that he realized it was impossible for him to win, and closes by urging all his friends to support Judge Miller.

Four years ago he refused to submit to the people and contested with Judge Miller, while Mr. Sampson submitted to the inevitable. Now the question is, "Will the people go to Miller since Wyatt has quit the race, or will they remain free to vote as they please?"

Judge G. P. Bain has quit the race for County Court Clerk, but he has never given out any statement as to who he expected to support.

We believe in letting every tab stand on its own bottom and every man make his own choice.

This government at Washington still stands. The battle of the ballots has been fought and the victory was the greatest ever achieved by our party. Even the doubtful Democratic States have all shown up a good old-fashioned Republican majority. Roosevelt has been again elected and the country is at peace with all men.

The gold telegram of Judge Parker only proved to be a boomerang for the party and the people were not to be fooled by it.

We will now enjoy four more years of Republican prosperity.

To-morrow is the final day for the primary contest, all that can be done has been done for and by all the candidates, and as a final admonition we say to every Republican in Knox County this: Look over the list of candidates who have their announcement in the ADVOCATE, and from that select your nominees. You are sure then to make no mistake.

The Court of Appeals may yet make itself unpopular with the practical politicians. It has undertaken to enforce the constitution, and that will bring trouble. Its latest decision is that a magistrate may not at the same time be road supervisor. Some politicians will yet have to go to work.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

"YOU MIGHT HAVE THAID O!"
I was hard at work in my study When I heard a gentle tap, "Come in!" and in came my Josie, Tearful from some mishap. And I knew that she was longing To be cuddled in my lap.
"I hushed my slender sister, And papa, it doth ache so!"
"Well, well, run away to mamma, For I can't help it, Jo."
She raised her tear-wet lashes—"Papa, you might have thaid O!"

The study-closed closed swiftly And I was left alone
With nothing to hinder my writing— But the thought of a tender tone, So loving and so reproachful "I would have touched a heart of stone."

And I sat and looked at my paper But some how I couldn't write And there broke on me in silence The dawn of a clearer light; The touch of that aching finger Had given me my sight.

Have a tender word, my brothers, For the little trouble and pains, It was not beneath our Master, It is far above our gains; It will hasten the heavenly kingdom Where only love remains.

THE thief who steals your peace of mind is meaner than the one who steals your property.

TEACH your girl how to cook, and if she does not thank you for her body's son will thank you for her.

No one can so inspire a man to noble purposes as a noble woman, and no one so thoroughly degrade a man as wife of unworthy tendencies.

JEALOUSY.

How fortunate it is that there is not a jealous person among our large family of readers. We do not know of one; do you? Such being the case we can severely censure these jealous people that are to be found in most all other communities. The first boy ever born was jealous. If you remember Cain took a rough stick and killed his brother Abel because he was jealous. The sacrifice of Abel had been accepted while Cain's was rejected. Jealousy is simply a grief we experience on account of the superiority of others. Their superiority in talent, wealth, beauty, virtue or social or political recognition. It is the shadow of other people's success which clouds our lives. It is the thunder of our neighbor's popularity which sours the milk of human kindness in us. It is the father and mother of half the woes and crimes of the human race. It is jealousy that keeps all Europe disturbed. Nations jealous of Germany, of England, of Russia. Jealous of each other and all jealous of America. What a scene of jealousy we had in this country when President Garfield was dying. Faithful physicians sacrificed their practice and health in fidelity to that death-bed. Drs. Bliss, Hamilton and Agnew went through anxieties and toils such as few of us can realize. But they did not please the rest of the medical world. The doctors in charge could do nothing right or pleasing to the other doctors. Jealousy. When you hear a man or woman abused, drive in on the delenda's side. Watch for excellencies in others rather than for defects, morning glories instead of night shade. If some is more beautiful thank God that you have not so many perils of vanity to contend with. If some one has more wealth than you, thank God that you have not so great a stewardship to answer for. If some one gets a higher office in church or state you can thank God there are not so many to wish for the hastening of your obsequies. If you are assailed by jealousy take it as a compliment, for people are never jealous of a failure. Substitute for jealousy an elevated emulation. Seeing others good, let us try to do better. Seeing others industrious, let us work more hours. Life is short at the longest; let it be filled up with helpfulness for others, work and sympathy for each other's misfortunes, and our arduous full of white mantles to cover up the mistakes and failures of others. Surely this world is large enough for all and your rivals. God has given you a work to do. Go ahead and do it. Mind your own business. In all circles, in all kinds of business, in all professions there is room for straightforward successes.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

What is the moral effect of Free Masonry, Odd Fellowship, Knights of Labor and the numerous secret societies upon the home? Solomon, the wise man, said, "Discover not a secret to another," and he had good reasons for laying such an injunction, for in his time, as at the present, there were people too much disposed to tell all they knew. One-half the trouble in every community, comes from the fact that so many people have not the capacity to keep their mouths shut. We have two ears but only one tongue which is suggestive of the fact that should hear more than we tell. By the power of a secret divulged, families, churches, neighborhoods and even nations fly apart. By the power of a secret kept, great charities, reformatory movements and Christian enterprises may be advanced. It is an often discussed question whether associations that do not have their work with closed doors, and admit their members with pass words, and greet each other with a secret grip are right or wrong. Our answer is that it depends entirely upon the object for which they meet. If it is to pass the hours in revelry and obscene talk, or to plot trouble to the state, then we say with an emphasis that it is wrong. But where the object is the improvement of the mind, the enlargement of the heart, the defense of the government, then we say with just as much emphasis that they are a blessing.

There is no need that those who plan for right over wrong should publish to the world their intentions. Secrecy of plot and execution are wrong only when the object and ends are nefarious. Every family is a secret society, every business firm and every banking institution. The men who have no capacity to keep a secret are unfit for positions of trust anywhere. Secret societies have done incalculable good. One society gave for the relief of their sick in 1873, in this country $1,490,274. Some of the secret societies have poured a very heaven of sunshine and benediction into the home of suffering. Some of them are founded in fidelity to good citizenship and the Bible. Christ has given us a rule by which we may judge, not only individuals, but all secret societies "By their fruits ye shall know them." Bad societies make bad men. Good societies make good men. A bad man will not stay in a good society, and a good man will not stay in a bad society. Test these society by two or three rules. Their influence on home. That wife soon loses her influence over her husband who looks upon all evening absence as an assault on domesticity. That wife who becomes jealous of her husband's attention to art, or literature, or religion, or charity is breaking her own scepter of conjugal power. But let no man sacrifice home life to secret society life as some do. Some men are as angel as angels at the society room and as ugly as sin at home.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

All correspondents who write for this paper are requested to report the news briefly and confine themselves to news. Puffs for merchants come under the head of paid locals, and would be inserted at the rate of 5 cents per line, otherwise we must omit them.

Be careful not to write anything that will prove offensive to any one; a good joke is appreciated by all, but we want to make friends and not enemies of all with whom we come in contact.

Write on only one side of your paper and be sure to sign your own name to the manuscript—and for publication, but for future reference and to show good faith—a failure to do this will hereafter necessarily consign your letters to the waste basket.

Please read these notes and bear them in mind, and write on one side of the paper only.

B. P. Walker was visited by his father last Sunday.

Miss Hannah Jones visited relatives on Stinking creek last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Helton were guests of Mance Bingham Sunday.

The young people reported a nice social last Saturday evening given by Miss Julia Fortney.

There has been, and is now, a high fever raging through this community for Flen D. Sampson and Ben E. Parker. The women are becoming so enthusiastic in the Superintendent's race from listening to their husbands' and sweethearts' conversations that they will often remark: "If I wanted to become the wife of the next Superintendent I would slip a spider into Mrs. Ben E. Parker's pie." We are going to give Ben E. a good vote here Saturday, for he has shown us that he is a man of energy and perseverance.

THE ORACLE.

Himyar.

Well, Mr. Editor, I have been so dog-gone busy and had so many candidates to fool with that I could not come to see you last week, but here I am all like a bag of grasshoppers, alive and kicking.

We have had some stirring old times in our town of late. A wedding, a big "shivaree," and as a result Mr. George Tucker is down with backache after being married only one week.

There has been a big protracted meeting on at Flat Lick the past two weeks, and several of our near neighbors have sought Christ, united themselves with that "chosen band" of soldiers of the cross.

W. S. Woollan said that if Dry Guard would come down they would have some of that "possum." He holds two of its hams in trust.

Grover Baker, Esq., was in our town Saturday night on business.

Well, boys, don't forget Saturday, for it is one day more that you can enjoy your freedom, and a day of great anxiety for some of the many beggars of votes. Let us select the best, then do our duty. I. F.

At Shelby Gap, east of here, John Mullins, 60, a well-to-do logging man, was married to Miss Jane Foutch, aged 20, making Mullins' sixth marriage, and a new record in this State. His first five wives died.

News reached here that the engineer of the Letcher county railroad was washed into a jelly by the train bouncing from the track east of here. No further report has been heard of the disaster.

In the death of Mr. J. J. Asher, who passed away a few days ago, at his home in Hindman, the county loses one of its most substantial citizens: a man of the highest integrity and the most genuine public spirit; he had exerted wide influence and will be greatly missed. Mr. Asher was born in Wise county sixty-eight years ago, but came to this county when very young. After working for several years he saved up enough money to start a business of his own. He was known for his scrupulous honesty, and by fair dealings with everybody, built up a large business and gradually accumulated a fortune.

May the Advocate prosper.

A Novel Election Bet.

Quite a laughable affair occurred here last Wednesday night, when G. W. Gray wheeled Dr. J. R. Smyth all through the principal streets of the town in a wheelbarrow, to pay an election bet.

The performance began at 6:30 o'clock, starting at the corner of Knox and Walnut streets, and proceeded west to the public square, thence out Main street to the Methodist church, thence back and out River street to Dr. Burnside's residence, thence back to the point of starting.

The affair created quite a bit of fun and amusement for the spectators, while Dr. Smyth seemed to really enjoy his ride.

Mr. Gray is the manager of the Palace Furniture Company, of this city, while Dr. Smyth is one of the leading dentists.

The prominence of the two men added interest to the affair and attracted a large crowd to the scene.
